

Helpside can assist you with posting jobs and send you resumes for all candidates that respond. The fee for this service depends on where you would like the job posted. For assistance with this, please contact our HR Department at humanresources@helpside.com.

Indeed.com

Reaches a lot of candidates and is one of our favorite job sites to post to because of the flexibility and great response we receive. You can elect to have candidates answer some basic questions when applying, which helps you narrow applicants to only those most qualified.

Cost: $7 per post per day. If you would like to send an email to applicants, the cost is $1 per email.

KSL

This is a great tool for Utah-based organizations and job seekers. KSL charges a one-time fee per posting, for up to 60 days.

Cost: $100 per post for a 60-day ad

Utah Department of Workforce Services (DWS)

This is a free job posting resource for Utah-based organizations.

Cost: $0

Prism Hiring

Using the Prism hiring applicant tracking system, clients of Helpside can post jobs, receive applications, and manage candidate interactions with interested candidates online.

Cost: $30 per post per month*

*If you would like to post beyond the free job boards, there is an associated cost with each job board Prism partners with, including but not limited to Indeed, Monster, ZipRecruiter, etc.

ZipRecruiter

This is another national online job site. We have had some success using them in the past.

Cost: $249 per post per month

Monster.com

This site has a wide-reaching national and international audience. We have had some success using them in the past but have less flexible pricing options than Indeed.com.

Cost: $310 per post for a 30-day ad

SouthernUtahHelpWanted.com

This is a local recruiting site for areas near St. George.

Cost: $199 per post per month

LDS Employment Services:

This site gives employers the ability to post jobs and search resumes of individuals looking for jobs, from professional-level/skilled workers to entry-level.
